Restoration and conservation work in Red Fort

1787. SHRI RAJKUMAR DHOOT: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Supreme Court has cleared the deck for restoration and conservation work in Red Fort;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) by when the entire work is likely to be completed and the cost involved?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING AND MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) In pursuance of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, an Expert Committee under the chairmanship of Director General, Archaeological Survey of India has been constituted regarding the conservation and repair works of the Red Fort. The proceedings of the committee are in progress. No work in the fort can be taken up without the written permission of the committee.

(c) The required conservation works of the Red Fort are under examination of the committee. The necessary cost estimates will be worked out after approval of the works by the Expert Committee.
